

Greek Colonies vs Greek Charters

Greek Colonies are in “colony” status for one academic year. After the year, the colony must have at least 10 active members and be voted into the LTU Greek Life system at a Greek Council Meeting.

Greek Colonies	Greek Charters
Have a table at Recruitment (8'x 5')	Have a Booth at Recruitment (10'x10'x10')
When recruiting new members a colony must follow the Greek Council recruitment policies and Register a Roster of Active Members.	When recruiting new members, Greeks must follow the Greek Council's recruitment policies.
Cannot hold Lunch/Evening events with another Greek and Non Greek Org. during recruitment week.	Hold Lunch/Evening events with other Greek and non-Greek organizations during recruitment week
Attend governing council's meetings (SC/IFC/Greek Council/NPHC if Applicable)	Attend governing council's meetings (SC/IFC/Greek Council/NPHC if Applicable)
Can voice opinion but cannot vote at governing council's meetings	Vote at governing council's meetings
Cannot participate during Winter Carnival/Greek Week/Song & Skit or Greek Day	Can participate during Winter Carnival/Greek Week/Song & Skit or Greek Day for points
Cannot have big/littles with other Greek organizations	Have Big/Little events with other Greek organizations
Cannot run for or hold leadership positions within Greek governing councils	Can hold leadership positions within Greek governing councils
Respect Greek Council's and respected sub councils constitution and bylaws	Respect Greek Councils constitution and bylaws along with their respected sub-councils
Must Follow FIPG	Must Follow FIPG
Can hold events on their own within or out of recruitment week but must register with Greek Council if they want to hold events.	Hold events on their own within or out of recruitment week
Must Register their Interest group with Student Government: All Rights and Responsibilities	Register their organization with Student Government: All Rights and Responsibilities
LTU full-time faculty/staff advisor	LTU full-time faculty/staff advisor