

BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS IN GRAPHIC DESIGN

SUMMARY

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Graphic Design program encourages students to connect intellectual inquiry with hands-on making in order to best prepare for this exciting and competitive field. In it, students develop technical and conceptual skills both inside and outside of the studio and classroom, ensuring graduates have real world professional experiences before graduation.

The BFA in Graphic Design degree is NASAD (National Association of Schools of Art and Design) accredited.

CURRICULUM

The 120-credit hour program consists of:

Graphic Design	67
Core Humanities	24
Math and Science	11
Electives	18
Total	120

ADMISSION

Admission into the Graphic Design program follows the University's admission criteria. Portfolios are not required for admission.

For specific Graphic Design program questions, contact the Chair of Art and Design, Philip Plowright, at pplowrigh@ltu.edu, or Graphic Design Director, Lilian Crum, at lcrum@ltu.edu.

For general questions about admissions, our programs, or the college, please contact Alice McHard at amchard@ltu.edu or 248-204-2834.